

Artificial Intelligence and Collective Agency: Agenda

Friday 4 July (Day 2)

09:00: Arrival and refreshments

09:30 - 10:30: Minji Jang (Georgetown University / INSEAD), 'Aligning Status with Discretion: A Pragmatic Framework for the Role of AI in Human-Machine Teaming Systems'

10:45 - 11:45: Eamon Duede (Purdue University and Argonne National Laboratory), 'Collective Creativity in Mixed-Agent Science'

Commentator: Harry Weir-McAndrew (University of Edinburgh)

12:00 - 13:00: Harry Weir-McAndrew (University of Edinburgh), 'The Moral Life We Share: A Critique of Corporate Moral Agency'

Commentator: Jen Semler (University of Oxford)

LUNCH: 13:00 - 14:00

14:00 - 15:00: Kamil Mamak, Pekka Mäkelä and Raul Hakli (Jagiellonian University and University of Helsinki), 'Guilty, but less. The impact of humans' collaboration with AI and robots on the scope of their criminal responsibility'

Commentator: Imogen Rivers (University of Oxford)

15:00 - 15:30: Afternoon break

15:30 - 17:00: Keynote: Kenneth Silver (Trinity College Dublin), 'Does Dignity Require Phenomenal Consciousness?'

